

I am very happy that the NJ Do Not Call law is so effective. The number of unsolicited calls has decreased by 99%. I do not feel the law needs to be reduced to allow for business with whom I dealt with in the past 18 months to call. They can simply send me a letter or postcard. Businesses can also request that a customer sign up for email notices. I'm very glad not to receive another call regarding my long distance carrier!